The wolf will live with the lamb, and a little child will lead them.

December 24, 2021

Welcome to CAPC Oakland

We are a reformed, multicultural, politically purple, community of followers of Jesus. Together we seek to live our faith vigorously in our words, actions, and relationships in the East Bay.

In this seasons of COVID-19 we are gathering both in person and online. We ask that you wear a face mask for the entirety of the gathering in you join us in person. This is our way to best care for and love one another in the context of this airborne disease. We also leave windows open to ensure airflow.

Tonight's celebration is built around the ancient practice of lighting the Advent wreath in preparation for Christmas.

Composed of four candles, each lit on a Sunday preceding Christmas Day. The fifth and final candle is lit on Christmas Eve. If you have a wreath at hour home, you can light it with us during our virtual gathering.

Tonight, we gather to retell the Nativity story.

It's not just a story, but our story. One we continue in our life today. We've never done this gathering in a hybrid way – so we're all learners tonight! Much thanks to all those who helped make it possible!

Words of Welcome & Invitation to Worship

- Rev. Monte McClain

One: An unmarried teenage girl was invited—

MANY: to carry Christ into this world.

One: An ordinary carpenter was invited—

MANY: to be a father to a child unlike any other.

One: The shepherds were invited—

MANY: outcast and isolated, included at the manger.

One: The Magi were invited—

MANY: foreigners and seekers, included at the manger.

One: And if she was invited, and he was invited, and they were invited—

MANY: then we can trust that we too are invited.

One: This story is for us.

MANY: This love is for us.

One: Family of faith, this is our invitation. Welcome home.

MANY: Amen.

Want to learn more about our community life and action?

A great way to see a bit more is to check out our website at www.capcoakland.org or see what we've been up to lately on our socials under the handle @capcoakland.

As a community, we've encountered this tumultuous time of the past two years as a chance for redefinition - of who we are, what we're about, and how we are Church together.

During the time of pandemic, racial reckoning, and great societal change we've learned that sometimes we all need a little help to find avenues for action. If you need, or want, to get a vaccine, or booster shot, to slow the spread of COVID-19 and reduce your risk of serious illness you can find the information out by phone at 1-800-232-0233 or online at www.vaccines.gov.

Building Spiritual Resiliency : a practice. Christmas is the celebration of God with us – Emmanuel – (the name first spoken by the prophet Isaiah nearly 2,500 years ago). It's an affirmation of the worth of our lives, the importance of our actions, words and relationships. While you celebrate this week, take some time away, alone, in silence, to reflect meditate upon your life to build spiritual resiliency using this prayer practice. Writing it down might be helpful.

- Consider the period of pandemic from the Shelter-in-place, March 2020 until now. Where and when did you struggle? What zapped your energy and focus? Where and when were you encouraged, renewed, finding life-sustaining energy? How have you redefined hopefulness in this time? What would be the testimony you give about your life's experience and God's mercy? You might use your meditation to help redefine the joys & challenges you face in 2022.

LYRICS FOR TONIGHT'S CAROLS

"O Come All Ye Faithful"

Blue Hymnal #41, v. 1, 2 & 3

1 O come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye, to Bethlehem!
Come, and behold Him,
Born the King of angels!

Refrain:

O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
Christ, the Lord!

2 Yea, Lord, we greet Thee,
Born this happy morning,
Jesus, to Thee be all glory given;
Word of the Father,
Now in flesh appearing!
[Refrain]

3 Sing, choirs of angels,
Sing in exultation!
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!
Glory to God, all
Glory in the highest!
[Refrain]

"The First Nowell"

Blue Hymnal #56, v. 1 & 2

1 The first Nowell the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay akeeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep.

Refrain:

Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
Born is the King of Israel.

2 They looked up and saw a star
Shining in the east beyond them far,
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night.
[Refrain]

“Away in a Manger”

Blue Hymnal # 25, v. 1, 2 & 3

1 Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down His sweet head.
The stars in the sky looked down where He lay,
The little Lord Jesus, asleep on the hay.

2 The cattle are lowing, the poor Baby wakes,
But little Lord Jesus, no crying He makes.
I love Thee, Lord Jesus, look down from the sky,
And stay by my cradle till morning is nigh.

3 Be near me, Lord Jesus; I ask Thee to stay
Close by me forever and love me, I pray.
Bless all the dear children in Thy tender care,
And fit us for heaven to live with Thee there

“Joy to the World”

Blue Hymnal #40, v. 1 & 2

1 Joy to the world, the Lord is come:
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven, and heaven, and nature sing.

2 Joy to the world, the Savior reigns:
Let us our songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat, the sounding joy.

“In the Bleak Midwinter”

Blue Hymnal # 36, 1, 2, 3 & 4

1 In the bleak midwinter,
Frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron,
Water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow,
Snow on snow,
In the bleak midwinter,
Long ago.

2 Our God, Heaven cannot hold Him,
Nor earth sustain;
Heaven and earth shall flee away
When He comes to reign:
In the bleak midwinter
A stable place sufficed
The Lord God incarnate,
Jesus Christ.

3 Angels and archangels
May have gathered there,
Cherubim and seraphim
Thronged the air;
But His mother only,
In her maiden bliss,
Worshipped the beloved
With a kiss.

4 What can I give Him,
Poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd,
I would bring a lamb;
If I were a wise man,
I would do my part;
Yet what I can I give Him:
Give my heart.

“Angels We Have Heard on High”

Blue Hymnal #23, v. 1, 2 & 3

1 Angels we have heard on high
Sweetly singing o'er the plains,
And the mountains in reply
Echoing their joyous strains.

Refrain:

Gloria, in excelsis Deo;
Gloria, in excelsis Deo.

2 Shepherds, why this jubilee?
Why your joyous strains prolong?
What the gladsome tidings be
Which inspire your heavenly song?

3 Come to Bethlehem and see
Him whose birth the angels sing;
Come, adore on bended knee
Christ the Lord, the newborn King.

"Silent Night"

Blue Hymnal #60, v. 1-4

1 Silent night, holy night!
All is calm, all is bright,
Round yon virgin mother and Child!
Holy Infant, so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

2 Silent night, holy night!
Shepherds quake at the sight,
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heavenly hosts sing "Alleluia;
Christ the Savior is born,
Christ the Savior is born!"

3 Silent night, holy night!
Son of God, love's pure light
Radiant beams from Thy holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth,
Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth.

4 Silent night, holy night!
Wondrous star, lend thy light;
With the angels let us sing,
Alleluia to our King;
Christ the Savior is born,
Christ the Savior is born!
